

15th Century Encampment at Dragonfly Cove Farm

October 10, 1409... 10 am - 5 pm Dinner noon- 4 pm

Hear ye, her ye come on and all

Sir Richard Neville and his Companye of brave knights invite you to join them as they prepare to meet the bloodthirsty pirates of the County of Providence on the Island of Rhode.

Your attendance and support is encouraged as they prepare to defend the honor of the Maine....

Visit the Companye the skills needed to live and encampment and learn about work in 15th century.

Feast upon a period meal of chicken, roast vegetables, soup, bread, roast goat, roast apples and cider.

If you can, bring your wooden plates or bowls, mugs and a knife, we have no use of forks, as you know. Show off your finest festival finery and costumes.

A limited number of tickets are available, call for your reservations today...: 207-737-8737 or email jamurray@hughes.net

$15.00 adult
$10.00 per child over 8
$5.00 without dinner

For more information about the Companye go to www.nevillecompanye.com or email nevillecompanye@myfairpoint.net

Dragonfly Cove Farm 5 McCobb Road Dresden, Maine 04342 207-737-8737

6 miles south of the intersection of Routes 27 and 128
3 miles south of the intersections of Routes 197 and 128
1/8 mile south of intersection of Route 128 and Indian Road

(rain date Oct 11)